

What Makes a Family

In my opinion, a family is made up of people who celebrate with each other. In First Laugh – Welcome Baby! the family welcomes the new baby by holding a special ceremony called the First Laugh Ceremony. The person who makes the baby laugh first hosts the ceremony. In my family we celebrate everyone's birthday with cake and gifts. Celebrating together is an important part of being a family!