

Revision Text 1

Example #1

José Guadalupe Posada's Calaveras are influential. Posada created the calaveras that are now a famous part of the Day of the Dead. Posada used printing techniques to create calaveras that teach life lessons and express Posada's opinions. His art helped others to question important topics. What could be more influential than a calavera teaching an important life lesson?

Example #2

Horace Pippin's art piece School Studies is remarkable. Pippin painted the scene based on his life experience. He painted with an arm injury from serving in the war. He used bold colors in his artwork. Isn't Horace Pippin's legacy remarkable?