

Rewritten Scene Brainstorm

Scene (including page numbers):

New Narrator:

What are the defining traits, beliefs, values and past experiences of your selected character?
Think about the way Adichie characterizes your selected character in this scene. What do you infer are your character's thoughts and emotions in this scene? Why do you think your character thinks and feels this way?
What additional details or insights could you incorporate to show your understanding of the chosen character's perspective?
What imagery and/or motifs might you incorporate in your rewritten scene to allow readers to better visualize the scene and understand its deeper meanings?
