

Name: _____ Date: _____

In the Time of the Butterflies

Rewritten Scene Peer Review Worksheet

Writer's Name: _____

Reviewer's Name: _____

1. Read your peer's written scene all the way through without making any comments or suggestions. Just enjoy!
2. Then, use the following criteria to assess and provide constructive feedback on the scene. Write your helpful comments in the space provided.
3. When both reviewers are finished, engage in a conversation with your peer. Ask and answer any questions that came up during the review process, and verbally summarize your observations about the writer's draft.

Clarity of the Scene

- Is the scene clear and easy to follow?
- Does it align with the events and characterization of the original scene?

Comments: _____

Authenticity of the Chosen Sister's Voice

- Does the scene effectively capture the chosen sister's unique voice and perspective?
- Is the sister's tone, language, and perception of the world consistent with her voice in the novel?

Comments: _____

Insight and Depth

- Does the writer provide deep insight into the chosen sister's thoughts and emotions?

Comments:

Strengths of the Writing

- Identify 2–3 strengths of the scene, such as symbols/imagery, authentic voice, or effective pacing.

Comments:

Areas for Improvement

- Identify specific areas that could be improved or expanded upon.
- Provide suggestions for enhancing the sister's authentic voice.

Comments: