

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sample Descriptive Details

Brainstorming Page

Descriptive Detail	Indirect Characterization
In Hebrew, my name means ascension. In Arabic: sublime. In Swahili: exalted.	I am proud of my name and what it means. I care about culture and language.
It means the hopes and dreams of my family, affirmed every time it is spoken aloud.	I feel like I carry my family's hopes, and that makes me feel important but also responsible.
My name is a garden with towering plants and a flowing spring.	I see my name as beautiful and full of life. I have a strong imagination.
In the green vines and purple bramble, my name is a cup of cool water.	I think deeply and describe things in creative ways.
It was a name from a fantasy book my mother read as a teenager.	My name connects me to my mom. It shows I am part of her story.
My name has three syllables and hundreds of spellings	I know my name is unique and sometimes complicated.
When I was small, my name felt so much bigger than me.	I used to feel overwhelmed by expectations.
I wanted a simple name, one where I might hide.	I sometimes felt insecure and wanted to blend in, and didn't want to stand out.
It took time, but I grew into my name.	I have grown more confident over time.
A sublime garden of vines and blooms, finally content to be exactly my own.	Now I feel proud of who I am and comfortable with my identity.