

Scenes from a Hat

Two rabbits arguing about who can hop the fastest	A fox and a crow competing over who's more clever
A proud lion finally admitting they're lost and need directions	A boastful bird asking their parent to teach them to hunt properly
Two friends discussing what they learned about sharing	A character explaining to their child why honesty is important
Two young birds bragging about their flying skills	A stubborn beaver apologizing to friends they ignored
Animals talking about how cooperation works better than competition	A bear and a raccoon showing off about who found the most food
A greedy chipmunk asking others to share food after hoarding theirs	A wise elder explaining to young animals why patience pays off
