

Name: _____ Date: _____

Self/Peer Feedback Form

	Strengths What is the writer doing well already?	Criteria Expectations for the writing task:	Areas for Growth How could the writer make the writing even stronger? How can the writing improve?
Topic Sentence		The topic sentence is clear, informative, and supportable.
Evidence		There are two pieces of evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 1 quotation from a unit text cited in MLA format.• 1 personal anecdote.
Explanation		Each piece of evidence is followed by a 2–5 sentence explanation of how the evidence supports the main idea in the topic sentence.
Last Sentence		The paragraph ends with a concluding sentence that begins with a transition word and summarizes how a unit text was a mirror or a window.
Paragraph Structure		The paragraph follows the T-E-E-L structure by including a topic sentence, evidence, explanation, and a last sentence.	