

Shuffled Sentences

Many people around the world began to join her protests and speak out about climate change.

Greta Thunberg has made a difference by taking action to protect the Earth.

At first, she protested alone and felt frustrated that leaders were not listening.

She started a school strike and sat outside the Swedish parliament with a sign.

Because of her actions, millions of people began to pay attention to climate change.