

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tableau Planning Handout

Possessive Practice

_____ claim of having a hundred dresses at home catches belonging to Wanda _____ attention. It's what makes the teasing begin. Mocking belonging to Peggy

Wanda quickly turns into the _____ favorite morning game. Each belonging to the girls

day, they laugh at _____ claim and ask more questions about belonging to Wanda

the _____ colors and patterns. _____ quiet answers belonging to the dresses belonging to Wanda and the _____ laughter show the difference between belonging to the crowd _____ world and the other _____ careless fun. belonging to Wanda belonging to the girls

Name: _____ Date: _____

Roles of Bullying

Bully Who is the bully in this scene? What is the bully doing or saying?	Target Who is being treated unkindly? What is the target feeling or thinking?
Bystander Who sees the bullying but doesn't act at first? What do they notice or feel before they act?	Upstander Who chooses to speak up or help? What do they say or do to stop the bullying?

My role in the tableau is _____

Tableau Narration
