Tomorrow night, my family will make pizza for dinner. My mom will make several batches of pizza dough, then we will add the sauce and toppings together. Last week we ran out of pizza sauce, so my dad made extra sauce for this week! Each person will get to make half of a pizza with whatever toppings they want. I always add extra cheese, pepperoni, peppers, and onions to my half. Even though those are my favorite toppings, I will share some slices with my siblings. Pizza night is always a blast!
